INVITATION FOR SUBMISSIONS

AHS Award 2023

The Albert Heim Foundation awards an annual academic prize for outstanding research in the field of cynology.

Apply today for the AHS Award 2023

The AHS Award with a price sum of CHF 10,000 is dedicated to outstanding cynological research from junior researchers, dissertations, as well as licentiate, master and bachelor theses from Swiss universities. The wide spectrum of research activities covers the most diverse disciplines related to dogs as well as interdisciplinary issues such as the human-dog-relationship.

The deadline for applications is on 1 March 2023.

An expert jury will evaluate the submitted studies according to the criteria "professional", "innovative", and "original", with particular attention on adherence to the applicable academic criteria.

The work must be submitted electronically in the first instance. On fulfilment of the acceptance criteria it should also be submitted to the AHS office in printed form along with an acknowledgement of receipt from the university, a copy of the PhD certification (for junior researchers) and a short CV.
